If you have never failed your PT Test, then this little book is not for you. Sorry, save your money and go buy a Monster instead. If have recently failed, concerned about an upcoming assessment, want to get leadership off your back, tired of bad advice that doesn't work from people who have never failed, never want your PT Test to interfere with your career ever again, just plain frustrated, or have troops that have failed, keep reading! I have gone from failing and being in "the program" to ending my career with a 97.5. My goal is to produce the same results for all the Airmen out there, who are struggling with the PT Test, themselves. This is not going to turn you into a machine overnight. This not my version of P90X. This is not Weight Watchers. I am not going to sell you a magic drink powder. I am not going to ask you to join a network marketing or multi level marketing scheme. What I am going to give you is information and guidance. The Air Force Physical Fitness Assessment is broken down to three parts. Strength, Aerobic Endurance, and Waist Measurement. In this book I will give you unconventional methods to address each of these. I will help you Pass Your PT Test by covering the following: *Strength (push-ups and sit-ups)- I can teach you how to improve these numbers drastically in 30 days by teaching you how to "grease the groove." *Aerobic Endurance (1.5 mile run)- This one isn't so easy. We will address ankle and foot mobility, running efficiency and training to specifically target you heart and lungs. *Body Composition (waist measurement)- This can be easy but in most cases we really need to spend some time on this. We will cover food addiction, inflammatory foods and stress management. Although I am retired, I still want to serve. The best way I see that's possible is to apply my years of research and experience to helping Airman never let the PT Test get in the way of a 5 EPR, promotion, or assignment ever again.

Tired of being passed over for promotions and fed-up with her lackluster relationship, KC Burke quit her job and dumped her boyfriend in one foul swoop. Now, with no job to report to and no place to live she must say goodbye to her beloved conservative Irvine, California and pick up the pieces at the only place available -her mom and dad's house in liberal Santa Cruz, California. Looking down her nose at the locals while keeping her parent's organic foods business at arms length, KC yearns for the day when she will have enough money to open her own architect firm - in Orange County, of course. But when the opportunity to restore the house of her childhood dreams presents itself, KC reluctantly dismounts her high horse and begins to open up to the possibilities Santa Cruz has to offer. Is the thrill of a new career path, the chance to reconnect with family and even the possibility of romance enough for KC to admit that under her stoic demeanor there's tie-dye running through her veins?

With nearly 30 years experience teaching in classrooms, tutoring in living rooms and developing programs for large test prep companies, Josh Covitt, the Math Whiz, and Ryan Darst, the Verbal Dude, have created a strategy-driven system of their own for the SAT and ACT. They realized that so many students at all levels - regardless of school district, neighborhood or GPA - were making the same mistakes over and over again, and those mistakes were mostly due to poor test-taking fundamentals. The core of Streamline's innovative and fresh approach is an emphasis on meta-fundamentals and a simple yet effective hub of strategies, de-emphasizing busy work and drills, which are far too common (and boring!) in today's test prep industry.

CISM is NOT a pure technical cert. In fact it tends to focus more on the policies/programs and management side of IS. There are technical questions but the questions are not like those that you can find in the MS/Cisco exams. The CISM exam topics cover Governance, Program Development, Program Management, Incident Management and Response etc. You need to know the basics of new IT technologies but you also need to know the older technologies since many old stuff are still at work in the modern business world. The CISM exam is NOT an IT exam, although there are many difficult IT questions. The management related questions seem quite vague that it would be uneasy to pick the correct answers without proper management sense (sadly, there isn't much a training material can do to build up one's management sense). We create these self-practice test questions referencing the concepts and principles currently valid in the exam. We focus more on the tech contents to make sure you don't get tripped up by the easy-to-ignore tech details. Each question comes with an answer and a short explanation which aids you in seeking further study information. For purpose of exam readiness drilling, this product includes questions that have varying numbers of choices. Some have 2 while some have 5 or 6. We want to make sure these questions are tough enough to really test your readiness and draw your focus to the weak areas. Think of these as challenges presented to you so to assess your comprehension of the subject matters. The goal is to reinforce learning, to validate successful transference of knowledge and to identify areas of weakness that require remediation. The questions are NOT designed to "simulate" actual exam questions. "realistic" or actual questions that are for cheating purpose are not available in any of our products.

In 1986, Elizabeth Ward Hoskins died leaving the contents of her home on Cape Cod to my husband, Donald Ward Bennett Edwards. He grew up in California unaware of his Ward family history in Boston. He had the opportunity while still a young boy to meet his great aunt, Elizabeth Bruen Perkins (Bessie), who speaks for the family in this biographical book which begins with her grandfather, Samuel Gray Ward, a prominent member of Boston's society and patron to many writers and artists. In Ralph Waldo Emerson's book, Letter to a Friend, the friend referred to is Samuel Gray Ward with whom he had a life long friendship. Elizabeth Hoskins, like many New England families of that era, never threw away items such as letters, news articles, scrapbooks and post cards. While working to dispose many of the items in the house unaware of the many famous people acquainted with the family, I discovered a manuscript dated 1928 written by Howard Ridgely Ward, the brother of Elizabeth Perkins. In it he described his life with the Thomas Wren Wards of New York and his Bostonian grandparents. It became obvious that there was a fascinating story to be written and so I began. It took two years to transcribe all the material at which time I began to relate closely with the course of the life of Elizabeth Perkins. Events, except for very few, in The Chess Queen actually took place, only the dialogue with its emotional content is my own. I know Bessie spoke through me to tell her story.
