Boundaries is a disturbing story about the blurred lines between love and betrayal, freedom and control, fantasy and treachery, good and evil, past and future. Diane Alders is a successful, workoholic sales executive in the medical field who has a void in her heart as a result of the tragic death of her husband seven years ago. Mickey Rollins is a genius and entrepreneur about to introduce a revolutionary new therapy that will 'repair' injured or impaired brains. Their sputtering romance hits full speed when Mickey invites Diane to accompany him on a lavish and bizarre vacation to the exotic South Seas intended to stretch their senses, fulfill wild dreams, and bring them closer together. Disaster strikes, and it is Diane who becomes Mickey's first human test subject. There's a catch...the healing process requires a surrogate, and Mickey chooses their mutual friend, lover and temptress—the beautiful Suki. The resurrection of Diane that transpires is not only a transfer of physical and cerebral attributes, but a blending of relationships, feelings, and emotions, drawing many into the fray, ending as shockingly as it begins.

What begins as a mundane day in the age of steam for reporter Flash Mahogany becomes a conundrum of intrigue and adventure. Flash finds himself face to face with his own counterparts from three different realities thanks to a device known as the Plasma Bolt Transporter. He must locate Jane Diggery and together they must find a way to send things back to their rightful place before the world is lost in a vortex of time. Flash's alter-egos, Doctor Bison and Captain Ogg Matterhorn along with Jane's alter-egos, Kathleen Bentley Bison and Elpis Verbeck, must race through all three realities and retrieve the plasma devices before the evil Wormwood and his alter-egos, Professor Niore and Commodore Helleborne, can use them to rule or destroy the world. It's a tri-reality befuddlement that can only have one outcome and what that outcome will be, only God knows.

Footnotes

Every human being suffers pain in life. No one's life is devoid of suffering. Be it in the form of heartbreak, traumatic event or setbacks. From all these the soul requires healing. Lessons are to be drawn from them with a need to move on and evolve. But sometimes incidents damage us in ways which require rehabilitation. But few sources are there to address them and offer rehabilitation. This is a book that gives a message of consciousness and the realization of one's talents and potentialities to fulfill them. It's a thrilling tale of a woman who quests to find inner satisfaction and in the process touches lives of many, a journey of love and self-discovery. Though a work of fiction, it is inspired by true events which offer healing to the soul. It is narrated with prose and poetry which will engage the readers and also satisfy literary readers. The book involves 3 main characters of different occupations and ethnic origins who go through different hardships suffering heartbreaks, abandonments, compromises, and breakthroughs during their quest for a deeper meaning of life. In the course of their adventures love, consciousness, happiness, healing, Africanism, masculinity, feminism, polygamy, religion, vulnerability, and maturity are discussed. Ultimately, life lessons are learned from this entire phenomenon where love and self-actualization prevail. The author Benyf, a former Morris Brown College student, a graduate of Fisk University and of Georgia State University gives a heart-written narration with the purpose to heal others' hearts, a road map for the next generation. Psychological ideas such as self-actualization, identity crisis, consciousness, and change are explored. It's a reflection on feminism and evolution with important life lessons to be learnt. Furthermore, the book offers its services for everyone, male or female, universal or unique. Take a dive into this world of Benyf to enrich and revitalize soul.

Sometimes heroes fall and take their loved ones down with them. Colonel Michael Cedars and reporter Hope Shane fell in love in a war zone, but then the world blew up and splintered their lives in two. Coming home again isn't always easy. A Marine accustomed to giving orders, Michael struggles to find his role in civilian life. Wounded, he faces new battles as he learns to walk again, struggles with wartime ghosts, and questions his abilities as a husband. Hope doesn't give up-not on the man she loves and not on her pursuit of justice. An investigative reporter, she's hot on the trail of a human trafficking ring. Danger intensifies as she gets closer to the truth, but the human traffickers know her weakness. Will Michael become her Achilles Heel? Is he still the hero she married or has he become a liability that could get them both killed?
