When Helping Hurts

While every Christian should be a witness and should "be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you" (1 Peter 3:15), not every Christian has a dominant gift of evangelism. TEAM Evangelism is designed to fit the 90 percent of Christians who do not have this gift, while it acknowledges the 10 percent who do have the gift and shows how both groups can work together to reach others for Christ. TEAM Evangelism helps every church member find their place in the team and work together as a team to fulfill the Great Commission, bonding the unchurched to Christ and the local church where they can develop into mature Christians. This 160-page book presents a no-guilt, no-pressing-for-decision strategy that allows you to be yourself while influencing your loved ones for Christ. Includes one spiritual gifts inventory and one TEAM Mate booklet.

Southern Presbyterian Review

The medical missionary work should be a part of the work of every church in our land (Counsels on Health, 514). By the ministry of the word, the gospel is preached; by medical missionary work, the gospel is practiced (Vol. 13 Manuscript Releases, 303). Physical healing is bound up with the gospel commission. In the work of the gospel, teaching and healing are never to be separated (Ministry of Healing, 140). We have come to a time when every member of the church needs to take hold of medical missionary work (Vol. 16 Manuscript Releases, p. 145). The gospel is bound up with medical missionary work. Neither is to stand alone (Vol. 13 Manuscript Releases 303). We should ever remember that the object of the medical missionary work is to point sin-sick men and women to the man of Calvary (Ministry of Healing, 144). He (Jesus) made each work of healing an occasion of implanting in the heart the divine principles of his love and benevolence. Thus, his followers are to work (Review and Herald, May 2, 1912).

Most Christians already know that they should be telling their friends about Jesus. But they have been poorly equipped with methods that are no longer effective in today's post-Christian world. As a result, many people become frustrated, blame themselves, and simply give up. Evangelism in a Skeptical World is a textbook on evangelism that is ideal for the church or the classroom to equip Christians with the principles and skills they need to tell the unbelievable news about Jesus to friends in a skeptical world. Many of the older principles and methods of evangelism in the twentieth century no longer work effectively today. In a post-Christian, post-churched, post-reached world we need new methods to communicate the timeless message of the gospel in culturally relevant ways. Dr. Chan combines the theological and biblical insights of classic evangelistic training with the latest insights from missiology on contextualization, cultural hermeneutics, and storytelling. Every chapter is illustrated with real-world examples drawn from over fifteen years of evangelistic ministry. These are methods that really work - with university students, urban workers, and high school students - getting past the defensive posture that people have toward Christianity so they can seriously consider the claims of Jesus Christ. Field-tested and filled with unique, fresh, and creative insights, this book will equip you to share the gospel in today's world and help as many people as possible hear the good news about Jesus.

The Evangelists Manual

To adequately present the message of the Kingdom in the midst of a perverse generation, we must study and apply ourselves. But knowledge alone is not enough; wisdom, understanding and discernment are also required to effectively minister God's Word. From her decades of ministry experience, Dr. Glories Powell shares practical tools for ministers of the Gospel. In this handbook you will find research techniques, sermon designs, ministry protocol, prophetic insights, and revelation on several doctrinal truths. Before we expect the power of God's Word to change lives, we must first allow the Holy Spirit to work through us. After more than 25 years of experience in ministry and a doctorate in theology, Dr. Powell has learned enough to know that there is much more to learn! Because a preacher or evangelist must model their message and live what they teach, this handbook was passionately written for those seeking to become skilled in presenting the Word of God.

In Evangelism: A Passion for the Lost, Dr. Mike points out that, though Evangelism and Witnessing go hand-in-hand, they are two separate entities: one points the person to the cross and the substitutionary sacrifice/atonement of Christ for every believer, while the other is more of a lifestyle that unbelievers see and inquire about Christ. This manual helps the believer to introduce Christ to those outside of the ark of safety and not get it wrong, but present the true Jesus, as seen throughout sacred scripture.

With more than 300,000 copies in print, When Helping Hurts is a paradigm-forming contemporary classic on the subject of poverty alleviation. Poverty is much more than simply a lack of material resources, and it takes much more than donations and handouts to solve it. When Helping Hurts shows how some alleviation efforts, failing to consider the complexities of poverty, have actually (and unintentionally) done more harm than good. But it looks ahead. It encourages us to see the dignity in everyone, to empower the materially poor, and to know that we are all uniquely needy—and that God in the gospel is reconciling all things to himself. Focusing on both North American and Majority World contexts, When Helping Hurts provides proven strategies for effective poverty alleviation, catalyzing the idea that sustainable change comes not from the outside in, but from the inside out.
