Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the Library of the British Museum in the Years 1881-1900

This text presents the work of real history teachers. It demonstrates how effective teaching can transform what is often seen as one of the dullest subjects in the curriculum into a real engagement between students and their own history.

Annual Report of the Superintendent of Education for Nova Scotia, for the Year Ended July 31st

This book uses an in-depth, phenomenological interview approach to explain the generational characteristics of today's Chinese university youths and the critical dispositions they believe indispensable in acquiring English as an academic language in and outside school settings. By presenting the authentic voices of the recruited participants, the book clarifies how English for academic purposes (EAP), as an emerging global phenomenon and a research-informed practice, enables and empowers them for conscious self-transformation and critical awareness development through language study. The book also explores issues arising in the fields of general English language teaching as well as traditional and critical EAP, and discusses university English language learners' learning needs and rights. The book further promotes a dynamic and transformative University EAP pedagogy of particularity, practicality, and possibility moving from the oppression of language education to its liberation, and the increasing critical consciousness among the present and future university youths in a time of great social changes.
