It uses a large number of texts on contemporary topics as a base for listening and reading practice, and seeks to develop students' writing and speaking skills by means of carefully sequenced activities leading to self-expression. It presents grammar gradually, and in the context of authentic texts and actual spoken usage.

The third edition of Vis-À-vis continues the excitement of the innovative second edition with a fully integrated and revised multimedia package and updated cultural information presented in the Correspondance feature (chapter opening letter, postcard, or e-mail, which is answered in the mid-lesson Correspondance cultural spread) and in the new Bienvenue dans le monde francophone feature that recurs after every four chapters in the text. The overall goal of the revision remains the same as that of the second edition: to promote a balanced four-skills approach to learning French through a wide variety of listening, speaking, reading, and writing activities, while introducing students to the richness and diversity of the Francophone world.

Portales 1 Student Edition (PB)

In February 2002, British journalist James Brabazon set out to travel with guerrilla forces into Liberia to show the world what was happening in that war-torn country. To protect him, he hired Nick du Toit, a former South African Defence Force soldier who had fought in conflicts across Africa for over three decades. What follows is an incredible behind-the-scenes account of the Liberian rebels — known as the LURD — as they attempt to seize control of the country from government troops led by President Charles Taylor. In this gripping narrative, James Brabazon paints a brilliant portrait of the chaos that tore West Africa apart: nations run by warlords and kleptocrats, rebels fighting to displace them, ordinary people caught in the crossfire — and everywhere adventurers and mercenaries operating in war's dark shadows. It is a brutally honest book about what it takes to be a journalist, survivor, and friend in this morally corrosive crucible.

Sag Mal 2e Student Edition (Loose-Leaf)

In his wonderful story of Elzéard Bouffier, an imaginary yet wholly believable shepherd, Jean Giono perhaps hoped to inspire a reforestation program that would renew the whole earth. The story opposes the tree-planter, the earth husband, to the makers of war. At the same time it shows us all that is best in man's relationship with nature - both parable and manual - and with his fellowman. For Giono, nature is a living force in which man can rediscover the depth and harmony he has lost in urban life. Michael McCurdy's beautiful woodcuts, which accompany the text, have helped establish this book as a unique edition of a unique and inspiring story for all times. When a Guardian survey recently revealed what writers would have liked to have written, War Horse author Michael Morpurgo plumped for this extraordinary title. The Man Who Planted Trees is now long established as a literary, and environmental classic.
