In Light Shining in a Dark Place, Jeff Sellars has drawn together more than a dozen scholars around the theme of discovering theology through the moving medium of film. The varied contributors in this collection explore, through their particular lenses, how theological ideas might be seen in and considered through one of the most popular of modern art forms. From subjects of sin, grace, and forgiveness to violence, science fiction/fantasy, and zombies, Light Shining in a Dark Place assists the theologically interested film viewer in tracing the light that might be found in the filmic arts back to the source of all lights. Contributors include: Bruce L. Edwards, J. Sage Elwell, Michael Leary, Peter Malone, Kevin C. Neece, Simon Oliver, Kim Paffenroth, J. Ryan Parker, Travis Prinzi, Megan J. Contemporary Authors

Rare is the memoir that reaches past the boundaries of the author's own mind and connects readers with the mind of the past. Church's second offering does so with delicate flashes of poignancy, bolstered by vivid images of haunted places and forgotten people. In these pages the often distant and inaccessible dreamscape of the Holocaust is brought home with striking intimacy. Church's firsthand experiences with that dark history, wrought in vulnerable honesty, are only strengthened by his considerable talent for strong prose. 'Return Not Desired' is an essential volume for anyone seeking an understanding of the nature of human suffering, and the indomitable will of humanity to see the light of hope in even the most dismal of circumstances.
