Crimson Beauty is born only a few years before WW1. After his mother died, Crimson Beauty is raised by grooms as a nervous and fidgety colt. Follow his adventures as he grows into an adult horse, learns to overcome his faults, and falls in love with a golden mare. Inspired by the beloved children's classic, Black Beauty, by Anna Sewell, this children's book follows the life of a stallion who must learn to love and have confidence in his master. Black Beauty's son is a colt who doesn't always trust the human at his head, who doesn't always do what he is told, and inevitably always manages to get himself in and out of trouble. The illustrated book provides a fun story from the horse's perspective.

In addition to an overview of the work's key themes, Seifrid's companion discusses the place of The Foundation Pit within Platonov's oeuvre as a whole, his troubled relations with literary officialdom, the work's ideological and political background, and key critical responses since its first publication in the West in 1973.
